

Plant "Imagination"

It is the time of year when we look at plant catalogues and dream of those soft summer days in the garden and "imagine" what a new plant will look like in 'our' garden. But, do you remember the excitement when you saw your first flower as a child? See below.

Did you see the pollinator's?

Anemone 'September Charm'

'Pollinator on Rudbeckia'

'Bee on Sedum'

'Bee's on Goldenrod'
