

Plant "Imagination"

Phlox paniculata 'Nora Leigh.'

The cultivar name 'Nora Leigh' may be misspelled as 'Norah Leigh.'

Nora Leigh is in the Polemoniaceae family.

Plant Type:

Garden phlox is categorized as an herbaceous perennial flower.

Characteristics of Variegated Phlox:

Nora Leigh produces clusters of light pink flowers, considered fragrant flowers by many. The center of the flower is a deeper pink color. This tall garden phlox has a variegated, lance-shaped foliage which makes it a very desirable plant in your garden.